TEN TORS 2011 – 51st ANNIVERSARY

Introduction. A warm welcome to all Ten Tors participants past and present to the Ten Tors 2011 'official' website hosted by the Exeter University. We remain very grateful to the university for allowing us to continue to use their website and in particular to our web master Mr David Cannon who provides such an excellent and comprehensive service to all concerned.

Ten Tors 2010. As all those who participated, supported or visited Ten Tors 2010 can testify, Ten Tors 50 was a remarkable occasion. We were fortunate to have good walking weather, possibly a little bit too damp and cold for those waiting, but excellent conditions for those walking the 35, 45 or 55 mile routes. The statistics speak for themselves;

- 397 teams started, 316 complete teams finished.
- 2382 individuals started, 214 individual fall-outs.

50th Anniversary. As befitting the 50th Anniversary, we were tremendously pleased to be able to show off this truly remarkable event to our patron, HRH The Duke of Edinburgh. There was a full programme of briefings and visits to the finish area where he was able to witness those teams completing their challenge and for those lucky teams who's arrival coincided with his visit, to present the specially minted Ten Tors 50 Medals at the Prize Giving Ceremony. In addition to meeting the general public, he was able to meet past and present Ten Tor enablers before departing from Okehampton Camp. Another milestone was the presentation the Ten Tors Award to 208 'old and bold' team managers and volunteer supporters with their Gold, Silver or Bronze Ten Tors Award medals for 20, 15 or 10 years of voluntary support to the event.
